

NEJM Review

Dopaminergic Replacement and Disease Progression in Parkinson's Disease

Abstract & Clinical Learning:

The management of Parkinson's disease centers on levodopa-based therapies. We discuss the long-term management of motor fluctuations (wearing-off) and the integration of dopamine agonists to optimize patient quality of life and motor function.